About this support

Interim Assistance

Provides immediate financial assistance for lower-income individuals or families who require urgent and temporary financial relief. Assistance provided will depend on the household situation.

Interim Assistance will be enhanced and administered by MSF and the People's Association. Applications can be made from 17 August to 31 December 2026.

Short-to-Medium-Term Assistance

Provides temporary financial assistance for lower-income individuals or families who are temporarily unable to work, looking for a job or earning a low income and require assistance.

- Monthly cash assistance for living expenses
- Assistance with your household bills, i.e. rental, utilities, and/or service and conservancy charges
- Medical assistance at public healthcare institutions
- Employment assistance such as job search and/or training
- Referrals for other relevant services

Long-Term Assistance

Provides long-term support to those permanently unable to work due to old age, illness or disability, and have inadequate family support or savings to rely on for daily needs.

- Monthly cash assistance for living expenses
- Assistance with medical expenses at public healthcare institutions
- Free or highly subsidised access to social support services
- LTA assistance rates according to household size:

Household Size	Current Rates	Increased Rates (From April 2025)
1 person	$640	$760
2 persons	$1,080	$1,250
3 persons	$1,510	$1,760
4 persons	$1,930	$2,230

Who is this for?

- You must be a Singapore Citizen or Permanent Resident (at least one member in the same household must be a Singapore Citizen).
- Households with a monthly household income per capita of $800 and below.

Interim Assistance

- Greater flexibility will be exercised in assessing income eligibility.

Short-to-Medium-Term Assistance

- Have little or no family support, savings or assets to rely on for your daily needs.
- Looking for work or temporarily unable to work due to illness or needing to care for children, elderly or other dependants.
- Even if your income exceeds these guidelines, you can still approach a Social Service Office (SSO) for assessment if you face financial difficulties. The SSOs will assess each household's needs, such as employment, family and finances, to ensure that the assistance we provide is holistic.

Long-Term Assistance

- Unable to work because of old age, illness or disability.
- Elderly persons who receive a small monthly payout from sources such as CPF Retirement Sum / CPF Life.
- Elderly persons whose children are low income themselves i.e. monthly household income per capita of $800 and below.
