SCHEME HIGHLIGHTS

- Family coaches from MSF's Social Service Offices and case workers from Family Service Centres journey with families and support them as they work towards their long-term goals
- ComLink+ families will receive financial top-ups through ComLink+ Progress Packages when they take active steps towards their longer-term goals in the areas of preschool education, employment, debt clearance, and home ownership

About this support

Under ComLink+ Progress Packages, families that have taken active steps to improve their circumstances can receive:

- [New – from Q3 2026] Partnership Payout of $500 per quarter for continued engagement with their family coaches or case workers at Family Service Centres
- [Revised – from Q3 2026] Up to $250 per quarter for regular preschool attendance
- [Revised – from Q3 2026] Up to $1,250 per quarter for stable employment (based on CPF records)
- 1:1 matched debt repayment up to a limit of $5,000 in total debt repaid
- 2:1 matched CPF contribution to help families save up for purchase of flat
- [Revised - from Q3 2026] Total payouts across all ComLink+ Progress Packages are subject to a lifetime cap of $50,000

Who is this for?

Families are eligible for ComLink+ if they have children under the age of 21 and are:

- Living in public rental housing (PRH); or
- Not living in PRH, but are eligible for KidSTART or have school-going children at risk of long-term absenteeism

How to apply?

If you are eligible for ComLink+ but have not been approached to participate in the programme, please contact MSF or visit your nearest Social Service Office
