Silver Support Scheme

The Silver Support Scheme provides additional support for elderly Singaporeans who had low incomes during their working years and now have less in their retirement. There is no need to apply for Silver Support. Silver Support has been enhanced from 2025.

Who qualifies

To be eligible for Silver Support, you must be a Singapore citizen aged 65 and above, and must meet all of the following criteria:

- Contributed not more than $140,000 to your CPF by age 55. If self-employed or have worked as a platform worker, earned not more than $27,600 between ages 45 and 54.
- Live in a 5-room or smaller HDB flat.
- You or your spouse do not own a 5-room or larger HDB flat, private property, or multiple properties.
- Your household earns not more than $2,300 per person.

All Singaporeans aged 65 and above will be automatically assessed for their eligibility to receive Silver Support payments.

> Note
>
> No application is needed.

How much you can get

Eligible seniors will receive Silver Support payments every quarter, depending on their household monthly income per person, and the type of HDB flat that they live in.
